Honda Motorcycles Workshop Manual C110 1962-1969 Motor Honda Motor 2009-07-01 A faithful reproduction of the 1970 Floyd Clymer publication of the official Honda Factory Workshop Manual specific to the 1962-1969 n10 50cc Sport Cub series of motorcycles. This manual includes all of the data that you would expect from a factory publication for the repair and overhaul of all major and minor mechanical and electrical components. It also includes a comprehensive troubleshooting section plus tables of technical data, tolerances and fits making it an invaluable resource for collectors and restorers of these classic Honda motorcycles. There are 55 illustrations and each procedure is explained in a step-by-step method using an appropriate illustration. The translation from Japanese to English is, at times, a little quirky but the illustrations make up for any difficulty in understanding what needs to be done! There are separate sections that deal with the repair and overhaul procedures for the engine, transmission, wheels and brakes, front forks, frame and carburetor, plus a detailed electrical service section. This is a - must have - reference for any Honda enthusiast and would certainly assist in helping any potential purchaser better understand the inner workings prior to purchasing one of these classic motorcycles. Out-of-print and unavailable for many years, this book is highly sought after on the secondary market and we are pleased to be able to offer this reproduction as a service to all Honda enthusiasts worldwide.

Never Say Never Nick Harris 2019-05-23 'The unmistakable voice of MotoGP' - Valentino Rossi As 'The Voice' of motorcycle racing for forty years, commentator Nick Harris became the biggest star not on two wheels in the paddock, and this is his mostly eye-witness, white-knuckle account of MotoGP's scorching seventy-year history. The story starts on the Isle of Man in 1949, when Geoff Duke, with his slicked-back hair and one-piece black leathers, became the nation's hero, defying the odds and winning the most dangerous race in the world on a British-built Norton. Just over a decade later at Mallory Park, another British champion and one of the greatest riders of all time Mike Hailwood screamed past a young Nick Harris on his 250cc Honda, and a life-long passion was born. Harris has been at the centre of the sport for decades, getting to know the riders as individuals, seeing feuds unfold, champions made, careers and sometimes lives ended. We'll see the biggest podium stars up close, from Barry Sheene and Kenny Roberts to Valentino Rossi, and we'll meet the mechanics behind them, the manufacturers who poured millions into the teams, and the organisers who, in the early days, ruthlessly compromised rider safety for profits. The drama has often been as tense off the track as on it. This is the book the motorcycling world has been waiting for.
